

Administration of Medication

We prefer not to administer medicines at school but if it is necessary, the medicine must be delivered clearly labelled with the child's name and instructions for administering it. We also require consent to administer the medicine. Administration will be recorded in the back of the accident book and signed by parent/staff member at the beginning of the school day.