

Part time Geography Teacher Position (KS2 to GCSE)

The New Forest Small School, 1 Southampton Road, Lyndhurst, SO43 7BU

www.newforestsmallschool.com

Are you a passionate educator interested in working in a small school environment?

The New Forest Small School in Lyndhurst is seeking an enthusiastic Geography teacher to join the team from September 2026.

What we can offer you:

- A supportive and welcoming leadership team
- A caring and collaborative staff community
- Opportunities for autonomy and creativity
- Well-behaved and engaged pupils
- A unique and positive school culture

The Role:

We are looking for someone who:

- Is truly passionate about teaching Geography
- Has experience teaching GCSE Geography
- Is open to teaching a range of age groups, from the end of KS2 to GCSE
- Can build positive relationships with pupils
- Can teach creative and engaging lessons

Job Type

- Permanent
- Part time (2 days, 11 hours per week - Thursdays, Fridays)

Salary

- £39,077.50 (pro rata: £12, 281.50 based on 11 hours per week)

Benefits

- Company Pension

Job Description

Overview

You will be teaching pupils Geography from the end of KS2 up to GCSE Level, teaching two year groups within each small class of up to 12 pupils. You will also be a subject leader for Geography, promoting the subject within the school and supporting other teachers where required.

Experience

Essential

- Have experience of teaching GCSE Geography
- Be an experienced teacher, although QTS is not a requirement

Desirable

- QTS
- Experience teaching in an alternative or small school setting
- Experience as a subject leader

Responsibilities

You will be responsible for planning and teaching engaging lessons to your assigned classes, as well as assessing, monitoring, recording and reporting on the learning needs, progress and achievements of assigned pupils, making accurate and productive use of assessment.

As the key individual delivering Geography as a bespoke subject in the school, you will be expected to use your professional skills and judgments to provide strategic and practical leadership in this subject area.

You will be expected to demonstrate the ability to work closely with other teachers, guiding them in how to teach Geography effectively within their project based learning.

To see a full job description for this role, please click here

How to apply:

Please fill out the application form on the vacancies section of our school website (<https://www.newforestsmallschool.com/staff-vacancies>) and email it to recruitment@newforestsmallschool.com

If you would like to arrange a visit to see our unique school environment, please email nfss@newforestsmallschool.com and we will be in touch!

Closing date:

June 26th 2026

Interviews will be held between July 6th - 10th 2026